

Total Spent per Country

The chart shows the total amount in $ spent on song purchases by country. It can be seen that customers in the USA have spent the most amount of money (~$520), followed by Canada (~$300), while most of the countries at the other end of the spectrum (e.g. Chile to Spain) have spent approximately $50 or less.

Maximum Longest Songs per Artist

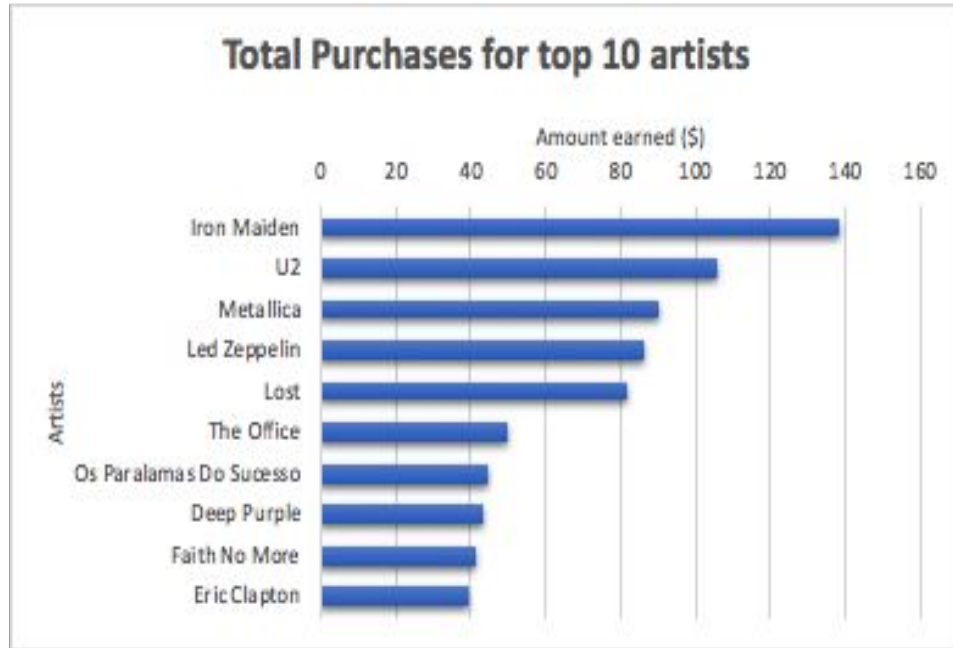

The chart shows the maximum longest songs for the top 10 artists. The longest song was for Battlestar Galactica at a little above 5000000 milliseconds while the shortest in the top 10 was for Miles Davis at a little below 1000000 milliseconds.

Percentage of Song Genre purchased in the USA

The bar graph shows the song genre purchased in the USA by customers. It is seen that ~32% of customers purchased songs having the genre 'Rock', followed by ~18% 'Latin', followed by ~13% 'Metal'. 'Jazz' to 'Science Fiction' had a very low rate of purchase (<5%).

Revenue earned by top 10 artists

The graph shows the highest revenues earned for the top 10 artists. It can be seen that Iron Maiden earned the most at approximately $140, while at 10th place was Eric Clapton with an earning of $40.